“Gramazin” is a word play on “Amazing Grace.”

Gramazin Inc. is a Massachusetts non-profit ministry headquartered in Gloucester, MA. We have filed for 501c3 status and expect to receive our Letter of Determination from the IRS by early fall 2024. Once received, all donations in 2024 will become tax deductible.

Our Mission

To encourage believers in Jesus Christ across America to share their testimonies of what Jesus Christ has done for them with their neighbors who are searching for hope. To encourage the sharing of such testimonies on the websites of churches that profess that the Bible is the inspired Word of God.

Our Vision

Hundreds of teams of believers in Jesus Christ throughout the United States work together to help local Bible-believing churches publish testimonies on their church websites. Those same teams promote the testimonies published on local church websites to the public.

One day our unchurched and despairing neighbors will search for hope on local church websites because it has become routine for churches to publish testimonies (“stories”) of how Jesus Christ really does change lives in the 21st century.

Our Founder

Charles Wagner, the Executive Director of Gramazin Inc., experienced a long season of hardship from approximately 2002 through 2012 that led to his hospitalization for suicidal ideation. He searched for hope by accumulating stories of individuals who had overcome adversity by their own strength. However, the Holy Spirit spoke to Charles one day: “What are you doing gathering stories of people who didn't turn to Jesus to rescue them?” From that point forward, Charles' focus became the gathering on church websites the stories, testimonies, of how Jesus Christ really does change lives in the 21st century.

Charles Wagner's Publications

- Take Every Thought to Prayer, a two-volume series containing over 700 prayers for various circumstances in life.
- Take Every Passage to Prayer, a two-volume commentary of the New Testament. The commentaries are written in the form of a letter to God and contain hundreds of prayers.

TURN THE PAGE OVER FOR MORE

Charles Wagner's first Christian fiction novel, released March 2024.

In a smoke-filled room in a seedy motel, Heidi Lonsberry cried out to God to rescue her. The 31-year-old single mother on welfare, estranged from her mother, has had a hard life. With tears streaming down her cheeks, she thought about overdosing on the cocaine that was available down the hall. However, she makes one final appeal for a miracle. God hears her prayer and sends her friend Troy Ashford, a despairing and broken 44-year-old divorced man, to her motel to comfort her. Their lives are radically transformed in that room by the divine creativity and power of God. An angel named Witness shares the story with us as we encounter lessons about the stubborn rebellious heart of people, God's discipline and compassion, divine planning, testimony sharing, prayer, identity, Biblical counseling, spiritual transformation, discipleship, mentoring, Christian community, and what it means to be a godly man or woman.
